For all other participants (including but not limited to, coaches, organizers, volunteers, medical team, etc.)

Note: These requirements apply in addition to any provincial public health measures already in place.

These measures are implemented immediately and will be maintained until the circumstances permit their variation or removal.

Accommodation Policy

Judo Canada (the Organization) is committed to taking every reasonable precaution in the circumstances for the protection of the health and safety of employees, athletes, and all participants from the hazards of Coronavirus. The Organization is also committed to compliance with all applicable public and occupational health and safety, human rights, privacy, and other laws in the development and implementation of this Policy.

Scope

This Policy applies to all attendees at events sanctioned A or B by the Organization, including but not limited to athletes, volunteers, and other participants in the situation where Judo Canada regulation is stricter than the local regulations.

Accommodation for participants who cannot be vaccinated

The Organization is committed to an environment free from discrimination and harassment in accordance with applicable human rights laws. The Organization will accommodate participants from the strict application of this Policy who qualify based on one or more of the protected grounds of discrimination, in the applicable human rights laws, up to the point of undue hardship.

Participants seeking accommodation are required by law to self-identify the specific prohibited ground of discrimination they believe vaccination would infringe and also participate in the accommodation process, including, but not limited, to providing information to establish the existence of a protected grounds, related restrictions and possible methods of accommodation. To discuss possible exemptions and related accommodation under this Policy, eligible participants should contact Nicolas Gill (n.gill@judocanada.org)

NOTE IMPORTANTE

AJUSTEMENT DE LA POLITIQUE SUR LES NORMES ET LES SANCTIONS S'APPLIQUANT AUX TOURNOIS EN RAISON DU CORONAVIRUS

Les changements suivants s'appliquent aux événements de niveau A et de niveau B sanctionnés tels qu'ils figurent dans la POLITIQUE SUR LES NORMES ET LES SANCTIONS S'APPLIQUANT AUX TOURNOIS de Judo Canada pour la saison 2021-2022.

Les organisateurs d'événements de niveau A et B sanctionnés doivent obligatoirement ajouter aux exigences et aux normes d'inscription les stratégies d'atténuation du coronavirus suivantes :

Pour les athlètes et les arbitres participants :

- 1) Tous les athlètes participants âgés de 12 ans et plus et tous les arbitres doivent présenter une preuve de vaccination complète au moment de la pesée officielle.
- 2) Tous les athlètes participants et les arbitres doivent soumettre une déclaration écrite concernant le coronavirus sur le formulaire approuvé. Ils doivent ensuite signer le formulaire et dans le cas des mineurs, le faire signer par leur parent ou leur tuteur légal.
- 3) Porter un masque à tout moment, sauf pendant l'échauffement et la compétition, ou quand ils arbitrent.

Pour tous les autres participants (y compris, sans toutefois s'y limiter, les entraîneurs, les organisateurs, les bénévoles, l'équipe médicale, etc.)

- 1) Tous les autres participants doivent soumettre une déclaration écrite concernant le coronavirus sur le formulaire approuvé. Ils doivent ensuite signer le formulaire et dans le cas des mineurs, le faire signer par leur parent ou leur tuteur légal.
- 2) Porter un masque à tout moment et maintenir une distance de deux mètres.

Remarque : Ces exigences s'ajoutent aux mesures de santé publique provinciales déjà en place.

Ces mesures s'appliquent immédiatement et seront maintenues jusqu'à ce que les circonstances permettent de les modifier ou de les retirer.

Politique d'accommodement

Judo Canada (ci-après, « l'organisation ») s'engage à adopter toutes les précautions raisonnables dans les circonstances pour la protection de la santé et de la sécurité des employés, des athlètes et de tous les participants contre les dangers du coronavirus. L'organisation est aussi engagée à respecter toutes les règles de santé et sécurité publique et en milieu de travail, les droits de la personne, les lois sur la protection de la vie privée et d'autres lois applicables dans l'élaboration et la mise en œuvre de cette politique.

Portée

Cette politique s'applique à tous ceux présents dans les tournois de niveau A et B sanctionnés par l'organisation, notamment, mais sans s'y limiter, les athlètes, les bénévoles et d'autres participants dans le cas où les règlements de Judo Canada sont plus stricts que les règles locales.

Accommodement pour les participants qui ne peuvent pas être vaccinés

L'organisation est engagée à un environnement libre de toute discrimination et de tout harcèlement, conformément aux lois applicables des droits de la personne. L'organisation offrira un accommodement dans la stricte application de cette politique aux participants qui se qualifient sur la base d'un ou plusieurs motif(s) de discrimination protégé(s), dans les lois applicables des droits de la personne, jusqu'au point de la contrainte excessive.

En vertu de la loi, les participants cherchant à obtenir un accommodement doivent identifier eux-mêmes le motif de discrimination illicite que la vaccination viendrait enfreindre à leurs yeux, en plus de participer au processus d'accommodement, notamment, mais sans s'y limiter, de produire des renseignements pour établir l'existence de motifs protégés, de restrictions connexes et de possibles méthodes d'accommodement. Pour discuter de possibles exemptions et de l'accommodement qui s'en suivrait en vertu de cette politique, les participants admissibles doivent contacter Nicolas Gill (n.gill@judocanada.org).

Les participants cherchant à bénéficier d'un accommodement doivent obtenir une approbation avant d'entrer dans les installations de l'organisation ou de participer à des activités de l'organisation.

Protocoles de tests pour les personnes ayant obtenu une exemption

Tout(e) participant(e) ayant obtenu une exemption devra soumettre un test PCR négatif valide 72 heures avant d'entrer dans les installations de l'organisation ou de participer aux activités de l'organisation.
